

Walking the Talk!

a celebration of war tax resisters & social justice activists

May 7, 2011
7-9:30 pm

Lake Merritt United Methodist Church, 1330 Lakeshore Avenue, Oakland

$10 donation requested (no one turned away)

Music by Francisco Herrera

And featuring anarchist
criminal defense attorney

J. Tony Serra—“Tales of Resistance and Doing Time”

Join leaders and activists from around the country interested in promoting justice and ending war. This evening program is part of a national gathering of war tax resisters, May 6-8th.

For more information: www.nwtrcc.org/scheduleMay2011.php

War tax resistance is a strategy of change for some. It is a way of life for others who won't pay for war while working for peace. War tax resistance actions are geared toward each person's level of comfort and risk taking.

For More Info: nowartax@riseup.net, 510-842-6124

Celebrating the work of this year's People's Life Fund grantees:

- Bay Area Women's Project
- BAY-Peace
- Break the Silence Mural Project
- California Coalition for Women Prisoners
- Civilian Soldier Alliance
- Hand to Hand
- PUEBLO
- 9 to 5

